EVICTION and REPLEVIN ACTIONS

ALL PARTIES MUST APPEAR AT THE TIME & PLACE STATED ON THIS FORM

You are advised to bring with you all papers and documents relating to this matter.

Instructions for Eviction Actions

- 1. To the Landlord: Attach a copy of any and all termination notices which were served on the defendant. Prior to completing the Summons and Complaint, call the Clerk of Courts Office at 608 266-4311 to schedule a date and time for the hearing. Place the scheduled hearing date and time on the Summons and Complaint prior to making the necessary copies.
- 2. At the initial hearing on the return date, the court commissioner will encourage the parties to enter into a stipulation whereby both sides agree to a move-out date, a schedule of payment(s), and/or other conditions. Any such stipulation will further provide that if the tenant fails to comply with any term of the stipulation, the landlord will be entitled to obtain a judgment of eviction and a writ of restitution to the sheriff for removal from the premises, without further notice to the tenant.
- 3. The landlord reserves the right to a rent and damage hearing at a later date.
- 4. Failure to appear at an eviction hearing or trial may result in a default judgment being entered against the tenant and a writ of restitution issued to the sheriff to have the tenant removed from the premises.
- 5. If both sides appear and do not reach a stipulation, a court trial will be scheduled, most likely for the Friday immediately following the initial hearing date, before the presiding judge.

Instructions for Replevin Actions

- 1. Failure to appear at a replevin hearing or trial may result in a default judgment being entered against the defendant and an execution issued to the sheriff to have the item(s) stated on the summons taken from the defendant's possession.
- 2. The plaintiff reserves the right to a deficiency hearing at a later date.
